UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF OREGON

PORTLAND DIVISION

WRIGHT

Case No. 3:17-cv-01066-JR

Plaintiff

vs.

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL FULLER

DEVOS, Secretary of the U.S.
Department of Education

Defendant

IN SUPPORT OF MS.
WRIGHT'S RESPONSE
IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO STAY

DECLARATION

I, Michael Fuller, declare the following under penalty of perjury:

1. I am over the age of 18 and have personal knowledge of the facts

I am testifying to in this declaration.

2. In July 2017 Ms. DeVos was sued in her capacity as United States Secretary of Education by Ms. Wright and various other student loan borrowers throughout the country. The lawsuits against Ms. DeVos were based on her alleged violation of the Administrative Procedures Act. Ms. Wright initially agreed to stay her case while Ms. DeVos decided whether or not to process her application for loan forgiveness. Over a year went by and Ms. DeVos denied all liability under the Administrative Procedures Act and never processed Ms. Wright's application. Then, in September 2018, Ms. DeVos was held in violation of the Administrative Procedures Act by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and Ms. DeVos's notice that triggered the lawsuits against her was vacated. Ms. Wright is represented by pro bono counsel in this lawsuit and intends to seek reimbursement of her costs from Ms. DeVos, including her $400 filing fee and service of process expenses. In the last status report to this Court, Ms. DeVos represented that she would continue discussions to resolve the sole remaining issue of costs. Since that time Ms. Wright has heard nothing from Ms. DeVos in this regard.

3. Ms. Wright was compelled to file this lawsuit based on Ms. DeVos's violation of the Administrative Procedures Act and Ms. DeVos's refusal to process Ms. Wright's application to forgive the predatory student loans Ms. Wright incurred at the now-defunct ITT Technical Institute. Ms. Wright waited faithfully for well over a year for Ms. DeVos to process her application for loan forgiveness while this case remained stayed. Now, after Ms. DeVos has been held in violation of the Administrative Procedures Act and conceded her legal position, and the only remaining issue is the reimbursement of Ms. Wright's costs, Ms. DeVos again seeks to delay Ms. Wright's access to justice, now for an indefinite period of time, while Ms. DeVos's employer sorts out its self-inflicted internal budget issues. President Trump has indicated that the government shutdown may last for "months or even years". It is not fair for Ms. Wright and her pro bono attorneys to be trapped in this litigation indefinitely under these circumstances, when the only remaining issue is Ms. Wright's entitlement to reimbursement of her filing fee and service of process expenses.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
